

TiBLANEI

(Tibeto-Burman Linguistics Association of North East India)

ANNOUNCEMENT

Tibeto-Burman Linguistics Association of North East India (TiBLANEI) invites papers for its second volume entitled “International Journal of Tibeto-Burman Languages and Linguistics” from scholars working on the Tibeto-Burman languages of Northeast India. TiBLANEI is a platform created for native scholars, researchers and community linguists of TB languages of the northeast.

Despite having a rich cultural and linguistic heritage, most of the languages are unexplored in terms of codification, documentation and graphization. As a result, most of the languages in the northeast India are threatened with a danger of extinction. Keeping in view the nature of language endangerment of the region and the lack thereof, of linguistically based literature, the first volume invites papers from a broad of range of topics not limited to the following:

1. Phonetics and Phonology
2. Morphology
3. Syntax
4. Semantics
5. Socio-linguistics
6. Anthropological Linguistics
7. Language Teaching
8. Historical Linguistics
9. Lexicology
10. Morpho-Syntax
11. Typology
12. Field Linguistics and language documentation
13. Language Endangerment

14. Lesser Known TB Languages of NE India
15. Computational Linguistics
16. Multi/Bilingualism
17. Orthography/Writing System

Original unpublished papers may be submitted to the editors in the email id: tiblanei.editors@gmail.com. The last date for the receipt of papers is 30th August, 2026. Papers must be written in English within the limit of 7500 words (20 pages approximately) in the Times New Roman and 12 font size. The glossed texts should follow Leipzig glossing rules. Accepted papers will be communicated to conform to TiBLANEI style sheet. Papers thus received will be sent to two anonymous reviewers whose observations will be final and binding on the part of the editorial team.
